

You'll Feel The Earth Move

(Parody of Carole King's I Feel The Earth Move).

You'll feel the earth move under your feet
You'll feel yourself tumbling down You'll feel your heart start to trembling
When earthquakes rip the ground

Oh rebels—I can see your face
Flyin' into space that day
Land will vomit—in revulsion
Oh your spewing time's--on the way!

You'll feel the earth move under your feet
You'll feel yourself flinging around
You'll all be crying and sniveling
As you all spin around

(Musical interlude)

Ooh rebels—do you hear me?
Not so tenderly—falling rock!
You know that-- your emotions
Are nothing—they make God scoff!
Land's just got to—vomit baby

Ah, ah, ah,
Ah, ah, ah,
Yeah

You'll feel the earth move under
your feet
You'll feel yourself tumbling down,
a-tumbling down
You'll feel the earth move under
your feet
You'll feel the sky tumbling down,
a-tumbling down
Your bowels lose control
You've sold your very soul
You'll see the bodies roll
All over
All over
All over
All over

You'll feel the earth move under
your feet
You'll feel yourself flinging around,
flinging around
You'll feel the earth move under
your feet
You'll feel the sky spinning around Spinning around
Flinging around
Spewing abunds
Bodies fall round
A tumbling down
