

YOU STILL HAVE A PULSE
(Parody of "Pulse" by Melissa Etheridge)

Everybody's got sin inside
Depravity controls, the preachers lied
You can resist sin
As long as you've got a pulse

Do not join the world, it hurts your soul
Enabling sin is hate – it takes a toll
God seeks obedience
You can still do it
As long as you've got a pulse

To all humans
This is love
God lets your heart beat in your blood
You can return again
You still have a pulse

With everything we've got, "Repent," we cry!
For all your awful sin, that's why they died
We're telling you the answer
Fighting God, won't win
Cuz God gave you that pulse

To all humans
This is love
God lets your heart beat in your blood
You can return again
You still have a pulse

Who you gonna turn to Leaders all lyin' to you
Look at 'em all gunned down
It's time to face the truth
This is only lust
That's no kind of love
God gave you that pulse

To all humans
This is love
God lets your heart beat in your blood
You can return again
You still have a pulse

To all humans
This is love
God lets your heart beat in your blood
You can return again
You still have a pulse

To all humans
This is love
God lets your heart beat in your blood
You can return again
You still have a pulse – repeat
Everybody – You're Still Alive -- Repent
Everybody – Repent – You're Still Alive

You can return again
You still have a pulse
