

Oh Lamb of God (to Seals and Crofts Ruby Jean and Billie Lee)

Oh Lamb of God, according to all of thy promises we look for a new earth
Where the righteous dwell, to Thee be all glory Thou art the Father's eyes, old things pass away

Dearest Bridegroom, it really seems like a long, long time watching for thy return Shining forth marv'ulous light, uniting Jew and Gentile.
Thou art the blessed Son Of God, faithful witness we love

We are children of Thy Kingdom.
There soon will be no war, no one will kill or hate, or hesitate to judge-justly

Those that remain, shall be caught up on that glorious day meeting Thee in the sky We've known the world's hatred; Thou hast helped us through Thou art the straight and narrow path, we're just wayfarers

Oh Living Bread, we'll be with thee in the years to come, reign in that Promised Land We'll go where the Day Spring lives, together and live as one Thou art the object of our longing, we're thy creation

We are children of Thy Kingdom
Where every tongue confesses Jesus' name Every knee shall bow to thee -- Forever!
